Professional Expertise

Mark Stevens re-joined Cushman & Wakefield/NorthMarq as a Senior Director in November of 2014 as a part of the downtown Minneapolis project leasing team. Mr. Stevens brings 13 years of experience in commercial real estate leasing and sales with an emphasis on landlord representation lease negotiation, owner/occupier sales and customized market research. Mr. Stevens has established a productive track record that matches his enthusiasm and aptitude within the real estate industry. His strong belief in team work and loyalty has allowed him to build trustworthy relationships with his clients and the brokerage community.

Mr. Stevens' expertise is cultivating and delivering information that gives his landlord clients the ammunition needed to successfully manage their assets. Mr. Stevens goes beyond understanding and communicating the standard market data and assists his clients to understand the intricacies of the market and how it affects their asset. Mr. Stevens has extensive experience in the Minneapolis CBD and the neighboring North Loop & Warehouse District areas. He has been able to assist both institutional and local investors; some of his current and past clients include:

- Equus Capital Partners
- Reit Management and Research
- GE
- IRET
- Orix Capital

Work Experience

Prior to joining CWN Mr. Stevens worked at Cassidy Turley for eight years and United Properties for four years.
